

Marvin Kapus, RES (Registered Environmental Scientist)

For the past 28 years, Mr. Kapus has been performing Asbestos, Lead, Indoor Air Quality, Mold, Soil, Groundwater, Underground Storage Tank, Heavy Metals, Gases, Vapors, and other related environmental consulting, investigation and testing. Mr. Kapus provides consulting to major corporations, hospitals, schools, government agencies at both the local and state level, as well as residential clients. His involvement in the environmental field has been and remains diverse with projects ranging in both complexity and scope. This field experience provides him with the needed understanding and perspective as to what testing protocols to follow, what samples to collect and how to interpret the results and meet the objective of the project, small or large. His background and knowledge of environmental science, engineering, thermography, and building science enables him to fully understand the problems that exist outside and within buildings. Mr. Kapus is an approved instructor for EPA Lead-Based Paint Inspector and Risk Assessor courses; NYS DOL Asbestos Inspector and Project Designer courses as well as being an instructor for other environmentally related instruction, guidance and awareness courses.
