

Scott Frazier

Education

BSLS Native Studies and Communications Montana State University Billings 2004

Cultural Affiliation

Crow Tribal Member and Elder

Employment

Diversity and Native protocol advisor the USA network

NASA Grant 2005-2008

EETAP grant YR 2, YR3, and YR4

Native Waters Program Coordinator 2001-2005

The position of Native Waters Program Coordinator coordinates program concerning Native science and water science in the Missouri Basin with Native youth about the water of the basin.

NSF grant Informal Education

The three main programs were:

Young Leaders Camps for Native youth in the summer

Watershed Tours dealing with teaching teachers about local tribal water issues, and

The Traveling Display of the Missouri River Basin.

My job coordinates supplying students and teachers with tools for workshops and camps.

The Native Waters Program Coordinator did the buying, and distributing material for water science education. The program coordinator was instrumental in organizing the traveling display.

Self employed Native Artist

Exxon Corporation USA 1974-1984 Process Operator and Pipe Fitter

Presentations

Earth Day Lyndon College Vermont

Indigenous Conference University of Georgia Athens Georgia

Native Water Law Conference Cornell University Ithaca New York

NASA Colloquium, Langley Research Center Hampton Virginia

Fourth World Water Forum Mexico City,

Northern Plain Symposium Buffalo Bill Historical Center

Hungarian Parliament 2007

World Indigenous Conference on Education Hamilton New Zealand

International Lecture Tours of the United Kingdom:

Ehnamani Tour: Peace through Education 2000-2005

North Hampton University:

Breaking Stereotypes of the American Indian 2000

Current issues facing the American Indian 2001

Past, Present and Future: The American Indian 2002

Canterbury Christ University:

Breaking Stereotypes of the American Indian 2000

Past Present and Future: The American Indian 2003

Plymouth at Exeter:

Current Issues facing the American Indian 2001

Current Issues of the American Indian 2002

Stereo Typing of the American Indian 2003

Museums and Collections 2004

Exeter University at Exeter:

The Pow Wow and Dance in the American Indian World 2002

Stereotypes and Myths of the American Indian 2004

The Hath:

Past Present and the Future for the American Indian 2002 Buffalo 2003

The British Wildlife Center:

Animals and our Relationship: 2002 through present

Plus lectures at middle schools about Native issues, Natural resources and breaking stereotype and the Native American stereotype set by Hollywood.

2001- 2003 Summer lectures at Lone Mountain Ranch during weekly summer programs for their guests about current issues facing Native peoples art, and animals of the Yellowstone.